Attorneys for Defendant Tudrym

- B. This action arises under the United States Constitution and the Civil Rights Act of 1871 (42 U.S.C. Section 1983). This court has jurisdiction under and by virtue of 28 U.S.C. Sections 1343, 1331 and 1367. Venue is founded in this judicial court upon 28 U.S.C. Section 1391 as the acts complained of arose in this district.
- C. This case is premised on multiple searches conducted by Defendants of Plaintiff's person and vehicle on December 2, 2018. Defendants Heilig and McNeela detained Plaintiff for an alleged traffic violation and during the course of the stop searched Plaintiff's person and vehicle without his consent and called for K9 assistance, which was conducted by Defendant Tudrym. Plaintiff was brought back to Oak Lawn Police Station where he was subjected to further invasive searches by Defendants Heilig and McNeela and Defendants Barron and Sucharzewski signed off on the decision to send Plaintiff to the hospital for a further search of Plaintiff's person. At the hospital, Defendants Heilig and McNeela ordered medical staff to conduct a body cavity search of Plaintiff without a warrant or Plaintiff's consent.
- D. Plaintiff alleges the claims of illegal search and seizure in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment and the supplemental state law claim of battery. Defendant Tudrym has raised the affirmative defense of qualified immunity.
- E. The principal factual issues include: whether there was legal cause to stop and detain Plaintiff; whether there was legal cause to search Plaintiff's person and vehicle; whether there was probable cause to arrest and detain Plaintiff; whether there was legal cause to subject Plaintiff to another invasive search at the police station; whether there was legal cause to take Plaintiff to the hospital and order medical staff to conduct a body cavity search; whether Plaintiff consented to any of the searches and whether and to what extent Plaintiff sustained damages.
- F. The principal legal issues are whether Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights when they search and seized Plaintiff and Plaintiff's property and whether Defendants McNeela and Heilig committed a battery against Plaintiff in violation of Illinois law when the searched his person.
- G. Plaintiff seeks compensatory damages including emotional distress damages in a sum to be ascertained, punitive damages, and attorney's fees.
- H. All parties have been served.

II. Mandatory Initial Discovery (Pilot Program)

- A. All parties have read and understand the MIDPP order.

This case was not previously assigned to the MIDPP when it was before Judge Norgle. Plaintiff issued his Rule 26(a)(1) initial disclosures on October 6, 2020. Defendants will provide Rule 26(a)(1) disclosures by November 17, 2020.

- B. There are no disputes as to initial discovery responses at this time.
